CERTIFICATE IN ADVANCED ENGLISH (CAE)

University of Cambridge ESOL (part of UCLES) provides examinations in English for speakers of other languages.

CAE is a general proficiency examination at Level C1 in the Council of Europe Common European Framework. It is at Level 2 in the UK National Qualifications Framework, as specified by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA).

CAE is recognised as fulfilling English language entry requirements by many higher education institutions and corporate bodies across the world.

The examination has five papers: Reading, Writing, English in Use, Listening, Speaking.
Performance in CAE is indicated as follows:

- Grade A (Very good)
- Grade B (Good)
- Grade C (Pass)

Successful performance in CAE indicates a competent level in English. Successful candidates can communicate appropriately and with sensitivity and have the capacity to deal with unfamiliar topics.

The Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) has developed a framework which covers six levels of language proficiency aligned to the Council of Europe Common European Framework. Research carried out by ALTE has shown what language learners can typically do at each level.

The table below gives some examples at CAE level of typical general ability plus ability in each of the skill areas and in a range of contexts.

Typical abilities	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
Overall general ability	CAN contribute effectively to meetings and seminars within own area of work or keep up a casual conversation with a good degree of fluency, coping with abstract expressions.	CAN read quickly enough to cope with an academic course, and CAN take reasonably accurate notes in meetings or write a piece of work which shows an ability to communicate.
Social & Tourist	CAN pick up nuances of meaning/opinion. CAN keep up conversations of a casual nature for an extended period of time and discuss abstract/cultural topics with a good degree of fluency and range of expression.	CAN understand complex opinions/arguments as expressed in serious newspapers. CAN write most letters (s)he is likely to be asked to do; such errors as occur will not prevent understanding of the message.
Work	CAN follow discussion and argument with only occasional need for clarification, employing good compensation strategies to overcome inadequacies. CAN deal with unpredictable questions.	CAN understand the general meaning of more complex articles without serious misunderstanding. CAN, given enough time, write a report that communicates the desired message.
Study	CAN follow up questions by probing for more detail. CAN make critical remarks/express disagreement without causing offence.	CAN scan texts for relevant information, and grasp main topic of text. CAN write a piece of work whose message can be followed throughout.

Any alteration to this certificate renders it invalid and use of an altered certificate could constitute a criminal offence.

If there is any doubt about the details recorded on the certificate, contact the local Cambridge ESOL centre for advice on verification procedures.

A † symbol next to the candidate's grade indicates that the candidate was exempt from satisfying the full range of assessment objectives in the examination.

DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS OF LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

The courses for all levels are set according to the descriptors of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework (CEF). The chart below gives a brief description of what learners can do at each of the six levels (A1 to C2).

	CEF Levels	LANGUAGE SKILLS	BBILCentre LEVELS/COURSES & Cambridge ESOL Exams
PROFICIENT USER	C2	Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and account in a coherent presentation. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.	CPE
	C1	Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.	CAE English for University Applicants BEC Higher
INDEPENDENT USER	B2	Can understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.	GE Advanced FCE BEC Vantage
	B1	Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters, regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.	GE Intermediate/ Upper Intermediate BEC Preliminary PET
BASIC USER	A2	Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.	GE Pre-Intermediate • YLE Flyers KET
	A1	Can understand and use familiar explanations and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interpret in a simple way, provided the other person speaks slowly and clearly.	GE Basic/ Elementary • YLE Starters • YLE Movers
